

The Clara Barton Missing Soldiers Office

437 ^{1/2} 7th St. NW in downtown Washington, D.C.

Plan Your Visit Now!

“And if you chance to feel that the positions I occupied were rough and unseemly for a woman—I can only reply that they were rough and unseemly for men.”

Ms. Clara Barton

- A brand new museum and untold story
- Learn about Clara Barton's life achievements
- Admission is $5.00 per person
- Tours are approximately 30-45 minutes in length
- No reservations necessary for small groups
- Open 7 days a week for group tours by reservation by emailing Katie.Reichard@civilwarmed.org or by calling 301-695-1864 ext. 1010
- Volunteer opportunities
- Located next to Carmine's Restaurant
- Two blocks north of Archives-Navy Memorial Metro station on the yellow and green line
- Three blocks south of Gallery Place-Chinatown Metro station on the yellow, green, and red lines
- For more information go to www.civilwarmed.org
- Like us at facebook.com/ClaraBartonMuseum
- Follow us on Twitter @CBMSO

The Clara Barton Missing Soldiers Office Museum

437 ^{1/2} 7th Street NW
Washington, D.C. 20004
301-695-1864 for more info

Open Fridays, Saturdays and Sundays
11 am to 6 pm

The Clara Barton Missing Soldiers Office is now open in the Penn Quarter Neighborhood!!